ARTICLE I-NAME OF THE CORPORATION

The name of the Corporation will be the MILWAUKEE RADIO AMATEURS' CLUB, as included in the Articles of Incorporation, and being in use since 1917, to conduct business in Milwaukee, Wi., since that date.

ARTICLE II-PURPOSE

In addition to the purpose of the Corporation as set forth in the Articles of Incorporation, its purposes are to foster the ownership, operation, and maintenance of amateur radio equipment, special radio-telegraphic and telephonic equipment and/or stations, and other such apparatus as to promote the art, science, and technology relating to amateur communications between members. It shall also conduct field tests using such equipment under emergency conditions. It shall conduct courses of instruction for each of the grades of amateur operators' licenses, and shall maintain affiliation with the American Radio Relay League (ARRL), Inc., of Newington, Ct.

It shall also provide its membership with means to promote the friendly interchange of information concerning the improvement of communication, using present and/or advanced technologies, and to insure effective compliance with all Rules & Regulations of the Federal Communications Commission, and of the State of Wisconsin.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP

The Corporation shall have 4 classes of membership, consisting of the following:

1. REGULAR MEMBERS shall hold a valid Amateur Radio License, and have a bona-fide interest in Amateur Radio activities.
2. ASSOCIATE MEMBERS shall have a bona fide interest in amateur radio activities
3. LIFE MEMBERS shall be elected from the membership rolls, by the Board of Directors, after such member has attained the age of 60 or more years, and has been a member in good standing continuously for at least 20 years, immediately prior to reaching the required age.
4. FAMILY MEMBERSHIP shall include all licensed family members as well as anyone having a bona fide interest in amateur radio, living under the same roof. All licensed family members shall have voting privileges, but only one roster and one newsletter will be sent for use by the entire family.

Each member of the Corporation, with the exception of Associate members, and non-licensed family members, if in good standing, and present at a meeting, shall be eligible to participate in the business meetings of the Corporation. He/she will be eligible to serve in any of its elective or appointive positions, and shall have a vote, either in person or by proxy, at the annual meeting of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IV-BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1: General powers-The property, affairs, and business of the Corporation shall be managed by the Board of Directors.

Section 2: Number and terms of office: The Board of Directors shall consist of eleven (11) persons. They shall be the 5 officers of the Corporation, and 6 elected Directors.

All Directors and Officers shall be elected by the voting membership, and shall hold office until their successors shall be elected. The term of office shall be two (2) years, and at the expiration of any term, any Director may be re-elected.

Section 3: Organization-at all meetings of the Board of Directors. the President shall preside, and in the absence of the President the 1st Vice-President shall serve: in the event of both absences the 2d Vice-President shall preside.

Section 4: Resignation and/or removal of a Director: Any Director of the corporation may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Secretary of the Corporation. Such resignation shall take effect as of the date of receipt of the notice, or at a later time as specified in the notice. The resignation need not be "accepted" in order to have it become effective.

Any one or more of the Directors may be removed for due cause at any time, by vote of the Board of Directors, at a special meeting called for that purpose.

ARTICLE IV (cont'd)

Section 5: Place of Meeting-The meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at such time and place as shall be designated in a written or verbal notice to the Directors.

Section 6: Special meetings-Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held upon written demand of two (2) Directors, addressed to the President, a Vice President, or to the Secretary. The notice shall state the purpose or object of the meeting. Notice of such meeting shall be mailed to each Director, addressed to his/her residence or usual place of business at least two (2) weeks before the date on which the proposed meeting is to be held. Every such notice shall state the time, date, place, and purpose of the meeting. No business other than that stated in the notice shall be transacted at the meeting without Board consent.

Section 7: Quorum and manner of acting- A majority of the Directors in office at the time of any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at such meeting. The act of a majority of the Board of Directors present at any such meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors. In the absence of a quorum, a majority of the Directors present may adjourn the meeting until such time as a quorum can be present.

The Directors present at a duly called meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to transact business until adjournment, regardless of the subsequent withdrawal of enough members to leave less than a quorum-notice of any adjourned meeting need not be given.
